

- links to important policies such as the ILDS Articles and ByLaws
- an overview of our prestigious World Congress of Dermatology event
- information about the many current ILDS and IFD projects and programmes
- details of our partnerships and networks, including our collaboration with the World Health Organization (WHO)
- insight into our foundation, the International Foundation of Dermatology (IFD), and the work it does to support those in under-served areas of the world
- an overview of your membership and the General Meetings of the Assembly of Delegates
- important dates for your diary

and much more.

and much more.